The Pentagon's New Map

Hi There!

We're taking the level of FEAR OUT THERE.

WE HAVE NOTHING TO FEAR FROM THE MEDIA ITSELF!

A POLICING LEVEL OF FEAR IS NOT NECESSARY.

In the age of terror, geopolitics, governments, and mass-media feed off each other to amplify fear, reducing politics to a primordial choice between candidates. Vying to appear tougher than the other in such a climate, damaging external discourse and institutional norms.
