Geography of Economic Globalization, Summer 2016

To students signed up for the Geography of Economic Globalization:

Because of unforeseen circumstances, the Geography of Economic Globalization will be taught and organized as follows during the Summer 2016 semester:

All lectures will take place within these four weeks:

- March 14 – March 25 (two weeks)
- May 2 – May 13 (two weeks)

During these four weeks, there will be two lectures per week that are scheduled as follows:

- Tuesday: 16:30 – 19:30 in VEZ (the Věž classroom)
- Wednesday: 16:30 – 20:25 in LR (the Levá rýsovna classroom)

There will be an assigned reading for each week of the regular semester with the exception of the first week (12 reading summaries). Students will be required to submit a summary of the required reading on Moodle once a week starting on Monday, February 22. The reading summary will be due every Monday by 11:59 pm on Moodle. These reading summaries will be graded and are a precondition for passing the credit and being allowed to take the final exam.

All detail information about the course and reading summaries will be included in the syllabus that will become available on Moodle on the first day of the semester, February 15, 2016.

I apologize for any inconvenience.
