

Viktor Kotlán is head of ALM in Česká spořitelna, the largest Czech bank, part of Erste Group Bank. Prior to the present assignment, he held several management positions in ČS and acted as bank's Chief economist. He began his career in the Czech National Bank where he was responsible for the Monetary policy and strategy department. Viktor holds Ph.D. in economics and works in the board of the Czech Economic Society.